

Airport-grade DAC high-speed cable 40G selection guide

Overview

Here is a purchasing guide for 40G Passive High-Speed Direct Attach Copper Cables (DAC). It will guide you step-by-step through confirming four core elements: protocol, transmission distance, cable connector type, and device compatibility. Finally, our product models are listed for your reference. The 40 Gb QSFP+ direct-attach cables are available to provide the following types of connections: Single-connection cables provide a 40 Gb (4 x 10 Gb) bidirectional copper or optical connection between unpopulated QSFP+ ports. Fan-out (or breakout) cables provide four 10 Gb bidirectional copper. This comprehensive guide covers everything you need to know about the 40G QSFP+ DAC cable, from their construction and benefits to key applications, selection tips, and frequently asked questions. 5m to 10m, cost-effective alternative to connect two 40G Ethernet ports of network switches. Trusted by 260K+ Enterprise Users. These cables provide low-latency, high-bandwidth solutions suitable for modern data center demands. Handle DAC cables carefully to ensure that you do not crimp or bend the cable; otherwise, you risk damaging the cable. © Copyright 2025 Hewlett.
